

NICOLAI HOWALT

BIO

Nicolai Howalt, b. 1970 in Copenhagen, graduated from Denmark's Photographic Art School Fatamorgana in 1992. His photographic works draw on documentary traditions, but are also inspired by art and photography history. The conceptual and abstract are an equally integrated part of Howalt's art. The collision of different states, domains or worlds is a recurrent theme in series like '3x1', 'BOXER', 'Car Crash Studies' and 'Borders'. Nicolai Howalt's works have been shown in numerous solo and group exhibitions in Denmark and abroad. His works are represented in central collections and museums, including La Maison Européenne de la Photographie, France, MUSAC, Spain and The New Carlsberg Foundation, Denmark.

In collaboration with the Danish artist Trine Søndergaard, Nicolai Howalt has produced the series 'N+T' and the landscape series 'Tree Zone', 'Dying Birds' and 'How to Hunt', all of which are published as monographs. Howalt has also published the books '3x1' and 'Boxer'.

Nicolai Howalt is represented by Martin Asbæk Gallery, Copenhagen, and Bruce Silverstein Gallery, New York.
